PRESS RELEASES:

BUDAPEST: Support the 252nd Austrian-Hungarian Liberty Loan! Buy Bonds!

WHITEHALL: The military announced that the time had come to launch a new offensive that would "without a doubt, and in our triumph over the aggressors." They proclaimed this new development as the result of a complete halt of the enemy's offensive moves. This was explained as the result of surprise tactics by the British Navy--the enemy was so shocked at having defeated them so easily, that they are in a severe state of confusion.

CANTERBURY: Meteorologists announced that the mysterious thunderstorm which shot a bolt of lightning into the living quarters of the Archbishop, had returned to its point of origin in the layer of heavy smog which surrounds Mt. Olympus. The P.M. announced that there would be an immediate investigation of this menace to society.

MT. OLYMPUS: The European Concertmaster announced the changing of Olympus' name to "Smoggy Bottom." He also announced that anyone from the British Air Pollution Control Board will be shot on sight.

PRESS RELEASES:

MARSAY ((SICK!)): Authorities announced that they had succeeded in finding an old retired civil servant, who had once seen the Official Declaration of War, and would help them reconstruct it. The man, Pierre Ernst von Treppenhauer, 85 Avenue de la Paix, Paris, his position was that the declaration of war was a mistake. He said he had. As a result the Premier stated that they would soon be able to commence the war. Mr. von Treppenhauer will receive the Legion de Honour medal for his efforts.

DEUXIEME BUREAU: Secret Service agents continued to search for the fleet of Air-Dirigibles commanded by one Franz Treppenhauer, a German spy, who made off with the old Declaration of War. The latest info. was that the fleet had disappeared into a large cave which surrounds Mt. Olympus.

MT. OLYMPUS: Austrian Emperor Francis Joseph, aged 84, was "that usurper, Lucrèce Bonaparte, on a small mountain, is (a) a hot air instead of helium...First person to guess the source of the greatness. Her Royal Majesty Queen Barbara Phillip was buried today after 64 years of rule. She succeeded to the throne at age 22 in the midst of turmoil and chaos, war and famine, poverty and mistrust. With a firm hand she established order, with skill she triumphed in war, with understanding abolished famine, with charity eliminated poverty, and with love relieved mistrust.

"We now find ourselves again in crisis. The clouds of war, the thunder of armies, the lightning of fire rampant in the fields and the rain, the the rain of red blood again loom on the horizon. Let us not yield, I beseech you my people, to these threats. We stand, an island in the sea, united by love, understanding and faith. I your new sovereign, Queen Sarah V. Allen, ask that all of England, as one person, commit itself to the re-establishment of peace with honor, prosperity without poverty, and the rekindling of the spirit of love in hearts of all men, everywhere. To these ends let us strive and then He will bless our efforts with success and we will be once again called the children of God. Amen."

Well folks, Rod Walker has the funny idea that a group of Air Force officers who are currently in Turkey "watching" the Russians for us back at home is capable of beating the LTA in a team game!

The LTA accepts the challenge of MM Mayhem Management, unine. to a team game:

LTA:

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY: Brian Bailey

GERMANY: Clyde Johnson

TURKEY: J.J. Dygart

MM:

ENGLAND: 1st Lt Arthur Simon

FRANCE: 1st Lt Edward D. Meyer

RUSSIA: Capt Rodney C. Walker

Spring 1901 moves due 23 FEBRUARY 1967 c/o C. Turner, 843 Santa Fe, Albany, California 94706. Italy is to be unclaimed. When Italian units are dislodged, they are removed from play. The first team to have 18 units on the board shall be declared the winner. Good luck to the MM--they'll need it!

Since this issue is already late getting published, I shall delay publication of a number of articles and letters. Be prepared! ARMAGEDDONIA will have an article on the Swenson Rule! There will also be an article on an extension of the Koning's Rule to retreat situations--something Charles Brannan and I have just had a little argument about. See you then...
